

Call for Papers and Projects for #rpTEN

Curtains up for the #rpTEN Call for Papers. For our 10th anniversary, we want to bring participation, exchange and transfer of knowledge and experience to the forefront. We'll reflect on the past and continue to look to the future!

We would love to invite the Israel community to take part in #rpTEN and to show what you have to offer! We want your ideas and visions and bring them on stage.

Surprise us with your unusual, exciting, interesting and original submissions. Give your ideas free rein: We welcome everything, from talks and discussions to ideas for performances, games, surveys. Give us all of your exciting suggestions and let's turn re:publica into a colourful and eclectic mix once again.

That's what makes re:publica a unique conference on the digital society. #rpTEN will again bring diverse themes, event formats and workshops together into one event. Here's a small sample: Makerspaces and Innovation Hubs from around the globe presented by Global Innovation Gathering (GIG), topics and issues affecting Internet policy, wearables and the interleaving of fashion and digitisation presented by #FASHIONTECHBERLIN, music, art & design, mobility, new avenues in health care through re:health, innovations in the education sector through re:learn, and much much more... All media related themes will receive special attention. As in last year, we are curating a full programme for our stage at our partner conference MEDIA CONVENTION Berlin. We are taking entries to fill our line-up, so submit any and all ideas!

Intrigued? Get some inspiration from last year's submissions to #rp15. All speaker videos can be found here and on the re:publica YouTube channel.

Be a part of #rpTEN: Send us your ideas, visions, discussions, projects, performances, workshops, talks or otherwise formatted event. Give your ideas free rein, be assertive and original, bold and innovative – everything but boring. We dare you!

What we offer: A stage and the undivided attention from an international and interested audience, looking to engage with you. Join us from 2 – 4 May 2016 and celebrate with more than 7,000 participants and around 500 speakers in the STATION-Berlin.

Closing Date: The deadline for submissions is 10 January 2016.
